FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

On the night before he died, as he shared himself under the form of bread and wine with his disciples, Jesus said to them: 'Do this in memory of me.'

Everybody loves to be remembered. To be forgotten is to be treated as if we never existed. If we want to be remembered, we have a duty also to remember. But there is an art in remembering. Memory is a powerful thing. Wrongly used, it can bring death rather than life.

The art of remembering consists in remembering what will help and forgetting what will hinder. Past failures remembered will warn us against repeating them. Past victories remembered will spur us on to even greater ones.

Memory keeps the past alive. It is a form of immortality. Those we remember never die. They continue to walk and talk with us.

Memory is the only paradise from which we cannot be driven.

Cemetery management will now be handed over to a costly, Government bureaucracy, with no sympathy for the mission of caring for the dead and no experience in care for graves. It is a shocking decision.
